TRUSTEES' ANNUAL REPORT

The Trustees have pleasure in presenting their report and the unaudited financial statements of the company for the year to 31 March 2020.

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Objectives

The objects set out in the Memorandum of Association of the company are:
To promote education and science by supporting other charities working in areas relating to agriculture and food production to make better use of their funds.

AFCP believes that greater effectiveness can be achieved by appropriate collaborations and information exchange, either with charities or other organisations e.g colleges, research organisations. AFCP is a facilitator, primarily through the medium of its website, that brings together those looking for educational or research funding and charities providing appropriate grants that meet these needs, also arranging meetings for charities, funders and researchers to share information and ideas.

During the past year AFCP has delivered its charitable objectives by acting as an umbrella or resource organisation that freely provides information for the benefit of the public and those charities supporting the industry. In support of its objectives a range of activities have been undertaken.

Aims

To identify, develop and communicate opportunities and synergies for collaboration between charities operating in the agrifood sector.

To provide information to individuals seeking to establish or develop their careers in the agrifood sector through support from charities and other not-for-profit organisations, primarily through the provision of an up-to-date and relevant website.

Activities:

The principal activity of the company during the period was the promotion of the activities and operation of the charities supporting the agricultural, food and land based industries, together with the coordination and provision of information to improve the efficiency and effectiveness of the said group of charities.

ANNUAL REPORT AND ACCOUNTS
FOR THE YEAR TO 31 MARCH 2020

During the year, the AFCP has helped to strengthen links between charities, and also between charities and those they support, including universities and landbased colleges.

Activities included:

- the biennial Student Forum, involving about 30 students who are funded by various charities, which was held at the University of Reading in April;
- a National Forum 'Education - the essential farming and foodchain input', which was held at the East of England Showground in Peterborough in November,
- a South West Regional Meeting, which was held in Somerset (the Bath and West Agricultural Society Showground) in October.

AFCP is coordinating the joint funding, provided by several of our member charities, of three studentships together with the Agriculture and Horticulture Development Board in soil science, livestock health and crop pest management respectively. A fourth project, on carbon emissions in cattle, is planned to commence in October 2020.

A quarterly newsletter was sent to all members and is available to others via the AFCP website. It includes news of recent and future activities, and opportunities for charity funding.

The website continues to provide information on opportunities for individuals seeking charitable support for their specific activity. It is regularly reviewed and refreshed to keep it up to date.

Public Benefit

The charity meets its objective of enabling people who are seeking financial support for educational activities related to the science and practice of agriculture and food production to identify appropriate charities. This enables charities working in this field to be more effective and enables them to provide more public benefit.

Anyone can use the charity's services for the public benefit via an open access searchable website. The charity provides freely available access to opportunities for those seeking support for educational & research activities related to the science and practice of agriculture and food production. Public benefit results from quicker, more cost effective access to appropriate funding which facilitates education & research.

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

The Agrifood Charities Partnership (AFCP) is a registered charity (No. 1162177) and a company (No. 6510709), incorporated on 20 February 2008. A board of directors, who also act as Trustees, manages AFCP in accordance with the Articles of Association of the company.

ANNUAL REPORT AND ACCOUNTS
FOR THE YEAR TO 31 MARCH 2020

Trustees are recruited through the network of agrifood charities and it is the intention that the Board represents the cross-section of activities in the sector. No Trustee receives any benefit from AFCP.

Going forward, at least in the short term, the Chairman will develop activities agreed by the Board, working with Board members and other individuals. The latter may be remunerated for their work in some instances.

The Chairman and Board would like to pay tribute to the support for AFCP from former directors, Dr Stuart Burgess, Mr Phil le Grice and Mr Chris Moody.

This report and the financial statements have been prepared in accordance with these documents, relevant statutory requirements and the Statement of Recommended Practice on Accounting and Reporting by Charities 2015.

ACHIEVEMENTS AND PERFORMANCE

The Trustees confirm that AFCP has participated in activities in pursuit of its charitable aims and objectives as explained in the Activities Section above.

FINANCIAL REVIEW AND RESERVES POLICY

The charity recorded a surplus showing income exceeding costs by £5,528 compared to £6,570 in year to 31 March 2019.

Funds held on reserve at 1 April 2020 are £18,575; AFCP has no other assets.

AFCP's Reserves Policy is for the company to hold 12 months operating costs as a reserve.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE DIRECTORS

The Charities Act requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial period which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity at the end of the period and of the surplus or deficiency for the period then ended.

In preparing those financial statements, the trustees are required to select suitable accounting policies, as described on page 11-12, and then apply them on a consistent basis, making judgements and estimates that are prudent and reasonable. The trustees must also prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in business.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities Act 2011. The trustees are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

COVID-19

The directors have considered the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on the activities of AFCP. Meetings and Fora will be postponed or held virtually, if appropriate, and resumed once restrictions are removed.

The Chairman is in contact with AHDB and the students and universities involved in the AHDB/AFCP student programme; there should be no financial implications on AFCP, and any delays in the student projects arising from the pandemic will be communicated to the funding charities as soon as these are known.

AFCP has no employees, and the Administrator is paid on a self-employed basis for hours worked; the expected reduction in AFCP activity during the pandemic will thus reduce expenditure (travel and meeting expenses, administration costs etc). There could be a reduction in AFCP subscription income due to ensuing downturn in economic activity during and following the crisis. Reserves at 31 March 2020 cover over a year's planned expenditure so it is hoped that this could cover any such loss of income in the short to medium term.

REPORT OF THE INDEPENDENT EXAMINER
TO THE TRUSTEES OF THE AGRIFOOD CHARITIES PARTNERSHIP

I report on the accounts of the Agrifood Charities Partnership (charity no 1162177) for the year ended 31 March 2020 which are set out on pages 9 to 12.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The trustees (who are also the directors of the company for the purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the 2011 Act;
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act; and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- (1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements
- to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act have not been met; or

- (2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
