AFCP NATIONAL FORUM

‘Growing Young Minds and New Ideas’ and AFCP AGM

The biennial National Forum will be held on November 15th at Hartpury University and Hartpury College, Gloucestershire.

The Forum will provide an opportunity to hear about various aspects of education and research and will include a visit to the Agri-Tech Centre at Hartpury University, which was opened a couple of years ago.

Linking to this, we will hear about developments in vertical farming, both from a research and an industry viewpoint followed by two stimulating talks on involving young people in food, farming and the environment.

The programme can be viewed here. AFCP AGM will be held at 12.30 after lunch and before the afternoon sesssio.

AFCP Member organisations are entitled to one free delegate; £30 charge for additional delegates and non-members.

Students funded by AFCP Member charities are also entitled to a free place at this event.

Please register by 31 October with elizabeth@iagre.org.
